The 12th Annual Conference of the Australian Society for Computers in Learning in Tertiary Education

ASCILITE'95

Learning with Technology

December 4th to December 6th, 1995
University of Melbourne
Victoria, Australia

1st Announcement and Call for Papers

Conference theme

Learning with technology

Interactive multimedia and networking technologies now provide the means to change the way we teach and how our students learn. ASCILITE'95 will cast a critical eye on factors which affect learning in these environments. It will deal with the the very nature of multimedia for communication and consequences for pedagogy. A feature will be contributions from the creative arts and humanities.

Keynote speakers

ASCILITE Visiting Scholar:

- Linda M. Harasim, Department of Communication, Simon Fraser University, Canada, has designed, implemented and evaluated learning networks in Canada, the United States and Latin America. Professor Harasim is Editor/Co-author of Online Education: Perspectives on a New Environment (Praeger), Global Networks—Computers and International Communication and Learning Networks: A Field Guide (both MIT Press).
- Shirley Alexander, Associate Professor and Director of the Institute for Interactive Multimedia at the University of Technology, Sydney. Current multimedia projects include Ways of Thinking about Electricity, Concepts of Mechanics in Science and Engineering, Angledool Stories and Australia Street Archives. Her research relates to what we know about student learning in higher education and evaluation methodologies for multimedia programs.
- Dale Spender is a researcher, broadcaster, public speaker, teacher, author and editor of more than thirty books. Dr Spender is an expert in the fields of language, communication, writing, editing, publishing and equity. She is an international columnist and convenor of the Australian Society of Authors technology sub-committee. Regarding interactive multimedia she writes ". . . we may not be able to predict exactly what will happen when creative artists—in all fields—make their full contribution. But it will be no less fantastic or fulfilling than was the birth of the novel."

CALL FOR PAPERS

Abstracts are due by June 30, 1995. The Abstract should be no more than 300 words in addition to title, authors and affiliation. Successful applicants will be notified by July 14 and invited to submit a full Paper (10 page limit) by September 1, 1995.

A fast-track for works-in-progress will be kept open until November 3—abstracts only will be published. In all cases, presentations may be either oral or by poster.

Submit on paper:
Include a cover sheet with:

- ✔ Title of submission
- ✔ Names of all contributors
- ✔ Preference for oral (30 min) or poster presentation
- ✔ Preference for publishing in full (subject to refereeing) or as a work-in-progress Abstract
- ✔ Address, phone number and email address of main author (or contact person)

Or submit electronically:
By following the guidelines on the ASCILITE'95 homepage:
http://ASCILITE95.unimelb.edu.au/info.html

Pre and Post Conference Workshops

Workshops will be conducted on Sunday December 3 and Thursday December 7. Please contact the Secretariat ASAP with your proposal to conduct a workshop. Two workshops are already scheduled: Networks for Teaching (Harasim), and Electronic Publishing (Post-graduate Students' Association).

Social events

There is never an ASCILITE conference without a dinner dance! This one is Cabaret style at the San Remo Ballroom. Our social person guarantees a night to remember. And the cost is included in the registration. More events to follow.
